PURPOSES AND LEGAL BASES FOR PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

We process your personal data for the following purposes:

Purpose of processing	Legal basis for processing
Conducting and documenting the admission process and the educational process (for persons who commence education following admission)	Article 6(1)(c) GDPR (compliance with a legal obligation incumbent upon the Controller) in conjunction with Article 6(1)(e) GDPR (processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Controller), in connection with the performance of tasks arising from the Act of 20 July 2018 – Law on Higher Education and Science (Journal of Laws of 2024, item 1571, as amended), as well as regulations issued thereunder and internal regulations in force at Krakow University of Technology.
Conducting promotional and marketing activities, including through electronic communication tools (e.g. e-mail)	Article 6(1)(f) GDPR (legitimate interest) – direct marketing of the Controller's own services. Article 6(1)(a) GDPR (consent) – where you consent to receiving newsletters. Consent may be withdrawn at any time, and its withdrawal shall not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of consent before its withdrawal.

Purpose of processing	Legal basis for processing
Profiling for the purpose of preparing personalised offers (subject to consent)	Article 6(1)(a) GDPR (consent) – where you consent to receiving personalised offers. Consent may be withdrawn at any time, and its withdrawal shall not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of consent before its withdrawal.
Maintaining accounting records in relation to fees paid	Article 6(1)(c) GDPR (compliance with a legal obligation incumbent upon the Controller) in connection with obligations arising under the Polish Accounting Act of 29 September 1994 (Journal of Laws of 2023, item 120, as amended). This applies to data contained in confirmations of payment of tuition or participation fees.
Archiving of data	Article 6(1)(c) GDPR (compliance with a legal obligation incumbent upon the Controller) in connection with obligations arising under the Polish Act of 14 July 1983 on the National Archival Resource and Archives (Journal of Laws of 2020, item 164, as amended).
Establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims	Article 6(1)(f) GDPR (legitimate interest), namely the establishment, pursuit or defence of claims, including debt recovery activities.

RETENTION PERIOD OF PERSONAL DATA

Your personal data will be processed for the period necessary to achieve the purposes described above. Depending on the legal basis, this will include in particular:

- the duration of the admission process, and in the case of persons who commence education following admission, the duration of their studies, course, training programme, or summer school;
- to a limited extent, personal data contained in accounting records (relating to fees paid) will be retained for the period required under the Accounting Act;
- until consent is withdrawn, where consent has been given to receive newsletters and/or to profiling.

After the above periods have expired, personal data will be archived for the period required by law or for the period necessary to establish, pursue or defend legal claims, where applicable, and will subsequently be deleted.

RECIPIENTS OF PERSONAL DATA

Recipients of your personal data include entities providing services to the Data Controller under a personal data processing agreement, such as IT support services (including the provision and maintenance of IT systems), legal services, consultancy services, accounting services, postal and courier services, and entities and public authorities authorised to receive personal data under applicable laws IT services (provision and maintenance of information systems);

RIGHTS RELATED TO PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

In connection with the processing of your personal data, you are entitled to the following rights:

- the right of access to your personal data, the right to rectification of your personal data, the right to erasure of your personal data in cases provided for by law, the right to restriction of processing, the right to object where the processing of your personal data is based on the Controller's legitimate interests, the right to data portability, and the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data at any time. Withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal;

- if you believe that your personal data are being processed in a manner that does not comply with applicable laws, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office (Prezes Urzędu Ochrony Danych Osobowych). Before exercising this right, however, we encourage you to contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) in order to clarify any concerns.

OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE DATA

Providing personal data is voluntary; however, it is necessary in order to participate in the admission process. As a general rule, the Controller does not transfer your personal data to a third country or an international organisation. Your personal data will not be subject to automated decision-making, including profiling
