PURPOSES AND LEGAL BASES FOR PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

We process your personal data for the following purposes:

Purpose of processing	Legal basis for processing
Conclusion and performance of a cooperation agreement	Article 6(1)(b) GDPR – processing is necessary for the conclusion and performance of a civil-law contract. Article 6(1)(c) GDPR – compliance with legal obligations to which the Controller is subject, arising from applicable laws on social insurance, health insurance, and taxation
Maintaining accounting records	Article 6(1)(c) GDPR – compliance with a legal obligation incumbent upon the Controller in connection with the performance of duties arising from the Accounting Act of 29 September 1994 (Journal of Laws of 2023, item 120, as amended).

Purpose of processing	Legal basis for processing
Fulfilment of obligations relating to data archiving and the maintenance and disclosure of information in the Central Register of Contracts of Public Finance Sector Entities, where a given agreement is subject to registration in that register.	Article 6(1)(c) GDPR – compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject, in connection with the performance of tasks specified in the Act of 14 July 1983 on the National Archival Resource and Archives (Journal of Laws of 2020, item 164, as amended), the Act of 27 August 2009 on Public Finance, and implementing regulations concerning the Central Register of Contracts of Public Finance Sector Entities (CRU JSFP).
Establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims	Article 6(1)(f) GDPR – the Controller's legitimate interest consisting in pursuing claims, defending against potential claims brought by you, and undertaking debt recovery activities where necessary.

RETENTION PERIOD OF PERSONAL DATA

Your personal data will be processed for the period necessary to achieve the purposes described above.
Depending on the legal basis, this will include in particular:

- the period of performance of the contract, including the period during which activities aimed at its conclusion are undertaken.

After the above period has expired, personal data will be archived for the period required by law or for the period necessary to establish, pursue or defend legal claims, where applicable. In the case of contracts subject to disclosure in the Central Register of Contracts of Public Finance Sector Entities, personal data may be retained and disclosed in that register for the period resulting from the legal provisions governing its operation. Upon expiry of the applicable retention periods, personal data will be deleted or anonymised unless their further retention is required by generally applicable legal provisions.

RECIPIENTS OF PERSONAL DATA

Recipients of your personal data include entities providing services to the Data Controller under a personal data processing agreement, such as IT support services (including the provision and maintenance of IT systems), legal services, consultancy services, accounting services, postal services, and courier services, as well as entities and public authorities authorised to receive personal data under applicable laws. Where an agreement is subject to disclosure in the Central Register of Contracts of Public Finance Sector Entities, the recipient of the personal data may also be the minister responsible for public finance, who maintains that register.

RIGHTS RELATED TO PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

In connection with the processing of your personal data, you are entitled to the following rights:

- the right of access to your personal data, the right to rectification of your personal data, the right to erasure of your personal data in cases provided for by law, the right to restriction of processing, and the right to object to the processing where the processing of your personal data is based on the Controller's legitimate interests;

- if you believe that your personal data are being processed in a manner that is not compliant with the applicable laws, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office (Prezes Urzędu Ochrony Danych Osobowych). Before exercising this right, however, we encourage you to contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) in order to clarify any concerns.

OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE DATA

Providing your personal data is a condition for entering into the contract. Failure to provide the required data will make it impossible to establish cooperation. As a general rule, the Controller does not transfer your personal data to a third country or an international organisation. Your personal data will not be subject to automated decision-making, including profiling.
